

Man on a mission

I'm a man on a mission
Now walking alone
Got no plan but ambition
And that's all I own
Before the sunrise I'm gonna leave
I ain't going home

I'm not a fan of tradition
I like the unknown
I keep on changing my vision
But the one thing I know
Is when I come down, I'm gonna bleed
And fall like a stone... Like a stone

But my addiction is you, and I've had a few
I'm hooked and I can't break away
The one drug I fell into, you're all that I do
I'm so addicted to you

I got fire and ignition
The moon in my sight
Cross the wires on suspicion
I'm taking the flight
And when I'll look down onto the world
Round will be right, I'll be right, I'll be right

But my addiction is you, and I've had a few
I'm hooked and I can't break away
The one drug I fell into, you're all that I do
I'm so addicted to you

No, there ain't no healin' No, there ain't no cure
No, there ain't no healin' No, there ain't no cure

But my addiction is you, and I've had a few
I'm hooked and I can't break away
The one drug I fell into, you're all that I do
I'm so addicted to you... You...
Cause my addiction is you, and I've had a few
I'm hooked and I can't break away
The best thing I ever knew, you're all that is true
I'm so addicted to you

I'm a man on a mission with a picture of you
