

EVERYTHING INSIDE

You can steal my soul
But I'll get where I'm going
You can shake my bones
Cause I'm ready to go

Keeping alive and believing
I'm moving the walls and I'm walking right in
I know where to go with the feeling
I'm thinking yeah, yeah, yeah, somebody told me...

Don't keep everything inside
Let it out, gotta free your mind
Take, take, even lose your pride
But don't keep everything inside

They can hold you down
But you'll get where you're going
They can shake your ground
But you ain't gonna drown

Keeping the drive and the feeling
I'm moving the walls and the mess that I'm in
You know where to go with the feeling
I'm guessing yeah, yeah, yeah, can you feel it in you?

Don't keep everything inside
Let it out, gotta free your mind
Take, take even lose your pride
But don't keep everything inside

Take the wheel, take the ride, take the feeling inside
Make it real, make it right, yeah
Take the wheel, take the ride, take the feeling inside
Make it real, make it right, yeah

Don't keep everything inside
Let it out, gotta free your mind
Take, take even lose your pride
But don't keep everything inside

Let it out, gotta free your mind
Don't keep everything inside, Don't keep everything inside
