

Letter to a friend

Hello my friend,
How's your life today
You don't wanna talk,
But there's so much to say
I won't trust your eyes again, 'cause I know they tell me lies
Hello my friend,
How's your life today

Hello my friend,
It's not time to pray
Don't close your eyes
There's a life to live your way
I know how hard it is
But don't you loose your faith
Come on my friend
Don't throw your life away

I know you're waiting
For an answer now
But listen, hope you won't give up too soon
There's so much left to say
And still it's not too late to change your mind
Take a look into the mirror
Better open up your eyes
And I hope this letter helps you find your way
Find your way

Hello my friend
How are you today
I'm reading all your stories
They're written on your face
You forgot your heart
And what it's got to say
Hello my friend
How are you today...

Here's my letter now
With a message from the heart
That's all my friend
That's all I have to say
All I have to say...
