

Now

There ain't a single day without you
On my mind
From the very start I knew
That you're one of a kind

And every passing day to come
I feel I'm incomplete
I need to have you closer
To give you what you need

I'd walk
On broken glass to you
To find out
You really want me too

Now, I'm on fire
I tremble with desire
I'm in for something real
Now I feel strong
I know it won't take long
Till I see you come my way
And make you mine someday

There ain't a single night without you
In my dreams
We must have met in a past life, baby
That's the way it seems

And every time I call your name
My heart beats like a drum
It's getting louder everyday
And it's only just begun

I'd walk
On broken glass to you
To find out
You really want me too

Now, I'm on fire
I tremble with desire
I'm in for something real
Now I feel strong
I know it won't take long
Till I see you come my way
And make you mine someday
