

Superman

Oh man, the phone again
Must be someone looking for another hand
Empty, faces, getting answers in some other places

Am I, Superman, someone I don't even try to understand
Give me, spaces
My patience coming to an end

The answer to your question
Is I'm about to blow my mind
I'm not your Mr. know it all
And I don't wanna
Don't wanna waste my time

Over here, over there
I see myself already in my underwear
How long, could it take
Till it finally leads me to my nervous break

Get it right, you're Kryptonite
All I really want is have you out of sight
Read the sign, redefine
It says I don't live here no more

The answer to your question
Is I'm about to blow my mind
I'm not your Mr. know it all
Don't wanna waste my time

Just gimme one more reason
When there's nothing in return
Why should I bail you out again
I guess you'll never ...
I guess you'll never ...
No you will never learn.....

Oh, the answer to your question
Is I'm about to blow my mind
I'm not your Mr. know it all
Don't wanna waste my time

Just gimme one more reason
When there's nothing in return
Why should I bail you out again
I guess you'll never ...
No you will never learn.....
