

FEEL WHAT I FEEL

So much for love
You must've come from way above
Just for a smile and just for an inch
I'll run a mile, I'll run a mile

So much it seems
Might only be just mirrors and steam
Might be the wine
But I've never known a love so fine

Don't wanna wake up from this high

Say that it's fate, say that it's real
Say I'm not dreaming and you feel what I feel
Don't say I'm sleeping, don't let it end
Don't wake me up, I'll never find you again
I'll never find you again...

So much to say
Perfection in every single way
I'm taking the dive
Cause I've never felt just so alive

Don't wanna wake up from this high

Say that it's fate, say that it's real
Say I'm not dreaming and you feel what I feel
Don't say I'm sleeping, don't let it end
Don't wake me up I'll never find you again,
I'll never find you again, I'll never find you again
I'll never find you again...

Say that it's fate, say that it's real
Say I'm not dreaming and you feel what I feel
Don't say I'm sleeping, don't let it end
Don't wake me up I'll never find you again

Say that it's real... Say that it's real
Say that it's real... Say that it's real
Do you feel what I feel? What I feel...
What I feel... What I feel... What I feel...
Do you feel what I feel? What I feel...
