

Dear friends and fans,

You are probably wondering: "where did Hena Habegger go"?

Over the last couple of years, I have reduced my band activities step by step.

The fact is that after thirty years of non-stop rock'n'roll, and especially after our two children were born, I decided to take a break from GOTTHARD.

I came to this decision after a lot of careful consideration. For the moment I would like to devote more time to my young family and not miss seeing our children grow up.

Naturally I talked it through with my band mates. They regret my choice but understand and accept my situation. My heart will continue to beat for GOTTHARD and all GOTTHARD fans. I would expressly like to thank my band, the management and all business partners for their understanding and support during my time-out.

I will be back soon!

In the meantime, I wish you all the best.
